Highlights

SolarWinds, a leading provider of powerful and affordable IT management software, has acquired TriGeo. The addition of TriGeo's log and event management product offerings to the SolarWinds portfolio allows SolarWinds to further extend the range of problems we can solve for IT professionals.

The new SolarWinds Log & Event Manager will give IT organizations the ability to collect volumes of data from virtually any device on the network and correlate that data in real-time, resulting in greater visibility, security and control.
